Dear

We've discovered a recent traffic case filed against you per Missouri Court Records. Simply paying a traffic ticket means you'll be found guilty, possibly leading to higher insurance costs and points on your driving record. Too many points could result in the loss of your driver's license.

TicketTakedown will work for you to efficiently resolve traffic tickets by negotiating to reduce or amend them to non-moving violations. Our fees are $75 for basic traffic tickets and $945 for first-time alcohol-related offenses. Depending on the specifics of your ticket and the court where your ticket is pending our fee could be more but we will always make sure you know the amount and approve the fees up front.

Our fee is flat. That means you will owe no additional amounts to us but the fee does not include court fines/costs that may apply. However, if we are unsuccessful in getting your ticket reduced or amended (which rarely happens), we will refund you the entire amount you paid for our fee.
